The Virginian 1976-77

... Some things change, and rather abruptly, others are stubborn and resist the modern trend towards innovation. We have been witness to both these types of change. We have seen a new life style, co-education, and yet our traditional Joan of Arc guards her domain, determined to withstand all changes.

These pictures, songs, and quotes try to portray a busy, eventful year at our college. The year was just like many other years—people don't change much, they flow along with time—however, this year was unique to us, because we were the ones who had to capture it on paper ...

Beulah Bolden's poem, "Touching The Mind" was published by the National Poetry Press in Agoura, California, A College Poetry Review.

TOUCHING THE MIND

The depths of being like sea contains the elements that conceive.

Being yourself reveals diction from the heart that transcends.

Striving with control is the awareness of total self.

Roots of an organized physical substance orders.

The blind, deaf, and lame yes the most vital is the mind!

JACQUI SINGLETON

Each year there seems to be a special person who shines above the rest. This year that certain person is Jacqui Singleton. She gives her time and energy tirelessly for the benefit of others. One act plays, coffeehouses—you name it, she can do it!

It's nice to know there are still people who love making people smile. Thanks Jacqui and good luck in all you do!

Time And I

There's a part of me in the sky
Reaching out to touch the whys of the world,
Around me.

In the winds that blow, hear them cry
All the memories of life and of love,
That found me.

Time and I, somewhere we've met before
Was it a dream, realer it seems.
In the past, I am a part of you
Stay in my heart forever.

Kiss me tenderly, gods of night
Nurse the moon until the dawn of the morn,
Shall find me.
Never leaving me, watch me die
Take me in your arms, my soul shall be yours,
And love me.

Time and I, somewhere we've met before
Was it a dream, realer it seems.
In the past, I am a part of you
Stay in my heart forever.

Art plays an important role on the campus of Longwood. Many talented artists have been recognized through exhibits and displays. The junior art show proved to be an overwhelming success, and many awards were given. These are just a few of the many entries submitted.

Junior Art Show

CHI is a unique feature of Longwood which symbolizes the character and spirit of the college. The members of this organization are chosen because of their outstanding contributions to Longwood College. They seek to spread a special type of spirit through the campus that unites all aspects of Longwood. Chi commends individuals throughout the year who have displayed admirable qualities. "The real evidence of Chi can be seen in the hearts and minds of those who seek its real purpose."

Answers Hidden Somewhere In The Book

This is the editor's page and we are going to use it!! First off, it must be said that this book took a lot of time and trouble, and hopefully it'll be appreciated for what it is. It's no easy job to put a yearbook together, as is commonly believed. Secondly, to all those who suffered because of our photography problems, we deeply apologize. However, you weren't the only ones to suffer! We put up with complaints ALL YEAR LONG! Our choice of photography companies proved inefficient and it was US who had to reschedule and take the complaints. Do you think we wanted it that way? And the photography throughout the book, except for the work of a few brave loyal souls, was our own. WE became the photographers, developers, and printers. We didn't want the job, it just happened!

However, all things considered, we enjoyed putting the book together—there were fun moments. We'd especially like to thank the post office ladies for putting up with all the photography problems, and Mr. Dent and Cheryl for staying loyal to the end. There were many others who contributed, who we'll forget to list, so please consider yourself thanked.

To all those who have major complaints about the book, save them—join next year's staff—and see how much fun you can have perfecting the book. The Best of Luck to next year's staff, and may your rulers never warp

Geist

Purpose: Geist, the local honorary leadership society, recognizes three outstanding qualities in the student—leadership, scholarship, and service—these qualities tempered by humility, integrity, and intellect, the true measure of the individual. Outstanding scholarship, leadership and service not only in school activities, but within an individual field of study—these are recognized by membership in Geist. This membership is a challenge to constantly strive for these beliefs and ideals that will strengthen the individual member, the society itself, and the college community.

Listens to People, to Their Advice Confusion

The white pillars of the Rotunda stand proud and tall marking the entrance to a very important building at Longwood. The interior contains offices, classrooms and, most important, the Administration. It was once said that it is impossible to judge anyone else without first walking around in their footsteps. This is especially true with the governing body called the Administration. Students sometimes view this group as devoid of human compassion. Judgements are passed, stereotypes form and fear is instilled. Yet when viewed individually, each administrator has a different personality, feelings and philosophy. The things each one brings individually, are incorporated in their job.

Decisions are made constantly by the Administration. Consideration must be given to many factors: The students, faculty and the tax payers which the president represents by being appointed by the Board of Visitors. With so many groups involved, it is impossible to reach a perfect stand on everything. Mistakes are often made. The answer to correcting these mistakes, COMMUNICATION. This year many more channels of communications were opened. For instance, students learned that changes must be made by going through the Student Boards and not using hasty methods. The Administration learned that student voices are very important in preventing further complications. "Pow-wows" were utilized in working out harmonious solutions to the most difficult of issues. When all groups involved on Longwood's campus care about the welfare of the campus as a whole, the result is invariably a fulfilling college experience.

For those of you who believe that putting out publications is easy, think again!! These are two publications that have worked hard all year long to inform and educate the student body. So often it is easier to complain and compare than to actually participate in the production. Luckily, there are those who wish to attempt these difficult jobs. There is no end to student input; the publications are only what the students make them.

The Student Government at Longwood is designed to give the students input into matters concerning all phases of college life. Legislative Board acts as the "rule-making" branch, while Residence and Judicial Boards deal with the punitive enforcing of the rules. This year rules were reviewed and changed such as; open house hours were extended (to include weekday hours), and many more. These should be fully in effect next year. The administration and the students are able to co-operate when suggestions are voiced through the Boards. Every student is a member of Student Government and it is their responsibility to voice constructive suggestions to the Boards so that action may be taken.

SCOREBOARD

There are no other words for it—you HAVE come a long way, baby. We have watched the growth and maturation of a hot new item: men in blue and white who have come to Longwood and brought the vitality and spirit of a Hollywood superstud with them. At first, no one believed in them except themselves. But they brought order to disorder, calmness to catastrophe, and proved beyond a shadow of a doubt that they were alive and real and dead serious about their game. Congratulations and welcome to the newest and toughest member of the Longwood sports family—the men's soccer team.

To get kicked and then give a kick right back—such is the mark of a fighting team. Although the loss column outweighed the win column, the spirit never died and the men played each game as if it were their last. Sleep was lost, strains and sprains were tolerated, and pride was bruised, but there was never less than a one hundred-one percent effort. Pride is what it's all about, and Longwood is certainly proud of the 1976 Men's Soccer Team.

The difference is very clear.

Success comes with hard work, dedication, love, and now and then, a few tears. It takes a sharp eye, a good ear, a quick hand, and a little prayer. But can success be measured in these terms? We took a group of individuals, dressed them up in blue and white, called them "The Longwood College Field Hockey Team", and asked them to bring honor and glory to Longwood College. They returned with smiles on their faces and a trophy for second place in the district. Was this success? We sent them on their way again, this time they came back as the tired, happy, and proud owners of third place in regionals. Was this success? Think what we asked them to do; think what they did. Yes, Longwood, they were successful. They represented us to the best of their ability, and it is here that success can be measured.

1. The team adds A TOUCH OF CLASS to the practice as they HOP AND BOP to the tunes of today. 2. Patty Hughson flicks to Linda Baumler on a scoring drive. 3. Goalies Jane Grier, Sally Terry, and Robin Rowen play "tap the ball on the stick" at practice.

Hold your breath, these next few pages are filled with ACTION from the dynamic women's volleyball team. SPIKING, RECEIVING, AND SETTING are all in their bag of tricks. You order it, and THEY SERVE IT!! Their record didn't reflect their fighting spirit. However, the Junior Varsity team pulled through to win six of their seven games. Often the scores can't describe the excitement at the games. We guarantee that you will see plenty of ACTION continuing next semester . . .

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

"oh please go in ball, IN!! This became the familiar cry from the fans and players of the Longwood College Women's Basketball Team. It seemed as though the ball fell out just as much as it fell in; but when it did fall in, back off! Back off, high and mighty O.D.U. The first game of the season turned out to be the best game of the season. The Lord was willin', and the O.D.U. squad left with sour grapes. But, Longwood collected its share of sour grapes; disappointing losses to Madison and Norfolk State took their toll.

Another year has come and gone; history has its records of the 1976-77 season past. The faces won't be the same, some graduate, some are going on to school, and some don't care, and then there are others who can't wait until next season. Changes were needed, changes were made. Who will decide the fate to come? Probably God, and the Free Throw!!!!

They sure are "Great from every angle!" Grace and poise set the stage for every meet in which the Gymnastics Team competed. Swinging, bouncing or balancing, they're just great. Their new coach helped to build enthusiasm and offer words of encouragement—But the girls get all of the credit. A few sprains and strains always slow things down, but this team wouldn't be held back by anything. They won 8th at Regionals, and took away a 2nd place trophy at State. What more could we ask for? They're dynamite!!

1. Bunny holds an impressive pose on the free-ex mat. 2. Great stamina is required for this position on the beam. 3. Looks like she's "splittin'" 4. That's an awful thin piece of wood 5. Debi proves that little people can do big things on the bars. 6. HOW SWEET IT IS!

Take a peek at something new and different. Definitely . . . The place was the same—the 'ole matchbox gym. They used the same equipment; they wore blue and white too. Yet they didn't have ponytails! Matter of fact, they had broad shoulders and hairy legs!! What were they?

Whatever they were, they were dynamite. They might not have won a lot of games, but they played with pride and guts, and they never gave up. They are a foundation— a strong foundation that will expand and stand tall. "They" are the men, the Longwood College Men's Basketball Team.

Take a peek

1. The start of a whole new ball game.
2. Stretch up for two. 3. Bennie Shaw gets a hand in the way of an opponent. 4. On tip-toe to get that extra inch. 5. Billy and Gohath!! 6. One person can only do so much against something like that. 7. Coach Allen McNamee, Liz Warner, Roger Strong, Bryan Welbaum, Rob Johnson, Russ Tomlin, Wade Geoghegan, Greg Gilliam, Ray Alexander, Billy Rogers, Bennie Shaw, Jimmy Varbrough, Sue Delong

LACROSSE

If you've never had the pleasure of playing lacrosse, take the time. Does it sound easy? Well, it isn't! Running laps everyday, getting smashed by the stick of another novice, chasing a bouncy ball all over the field and that's only half! But, every sport has its problems . . . Lacrosse is a relatively new sport at Longwood and growing every year. This year's team suffered more than its share of losses, but the team kept their heads up. Every game received a fight from Longwood's team. Yes, they are a daring bunch of girls—and deserve a round of applause.

2.

1. What goes up, must come down. 2. Gimme that ball!
3. Cheryl Sams gazes in amazement. 4. Out weighed and out-sized, Little Holt looks like she is about to receive a stick in the face. 5. Little gets her revenge while Terry Donohue comes to the rescue.

2.

1. Terry Donohue demonstrates agility in receiving the ball.
2. Carol, this isn't bowling for dollars, pick up a stick. 3. Drills, drills, and more drills. 4. Goalie watches as violence fills the field. 5. Terry Voit races for the ball. 6. The ball has passed everyone now, but the goalie, What will happen?

Fencing

More than a Fad

1. ENGARDE!! 2. A beat attack knocks twinkletoes' blade out of line. 3. Cindy Morris tries to untie her opponets shoestrings. 4. "The art of offense and defense with a sword"—fencing in its' truest form. 5. A low lunge by Sue Sparkman draws a parry from her opponent. 6. Coach Bush looks like she's in a fine mood!!

5

Wow, what a team!! Our women's fencing team proved to be spectacular. It takes patience and precision and the timing must be perfect, but they had it all. Hidden away in an almost forgotten gym, they practiced for many long days and nights. Each one of the girls gave their all for the team and they proved it with a winning team. Clothed in white, silent and skilled, they proved to be champs Congratulations girls!

Golf is a game which requires precision, endurance, and consistency. This year's team had all three!!! This team didn't "putt" around. They won the VFISW State Team Championship and finished up the year with a 9-2 win—loss record. Each member gave their share of work and time to give Longwood a winning golf team!! These pictures show the girls in action

Golf

This year's golf team consisted of: Bev Hart, Janet Clements, Becky Webb, Robin Rowen, Judy Stiber, Deanna Vanwey and Coach—Dr. Smith

THE PUTTERS

Archery

Zoom—Ping—Plop! Archery is quite a sport! It takes a sturdy grip, eagle eyes, strength, and accuracy. These people have what it takes. They came through as champs again. Practice and more practice is the name of the game. A lot of patience is also required to become good at this sport, and our team proved to have their share. The team consisted of Colleen Blakely, Kathy Carter, Betsey Crupper, Carolyn Henshaw, Kaki Hicks, Penny Norford, Kitty Wray, David Funkhouser, Randy May. These pictures show them on the move.

Hold it!

Enjoy Yourself

Enjoyment—that's the name of the game. Whether it's playing football in the mud, eight-ball in the side pocket, ping pong, or spectating, anything goes as long as you have a good time (well, ALMOST anything!) New activities emerged to disrupt and distract the normal academic life. How do you tell your parents you failed Math 161 because you were playing polo in an inflated rubber thing in Farmville's emergency water supply (the Pool)? How do you explain to your roommate that his pants look like shredded wheat because some girl kept grabbing the pants instead of the flag? How do you explain these things? WHO CARES? Just tell them "I had Fun."

1. A lefty gives her all for the team. 2. Are these guys playing football, kill the man with the ball, or Simon says? 3. Love those fans!! 4. Kim Furhee gawkes at the photographer during a basketball halftime show. 5. Hey, you in the middle, you're offside!! 6. Careful with that eight ball . . .

WHAT MAKES THEM WORK

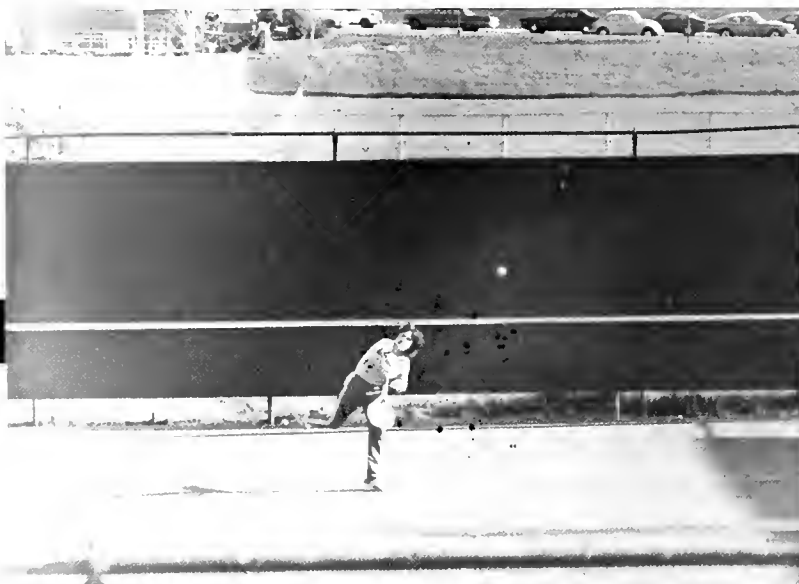

6.

5.

A refreshing new face!

Faster than a speeding bullet . . .

Yea Penny!

Tennis: A True Story

The tennis team had quite an exciting season this year. The girls proved their capabilities through their 9-0 record. However, they didn't win automatically. It took many hours of hard practice in all types of weather. They had their share of problems . . . sicknesses, injuries and broken strings, but they sure came through. Each match was packed with action! Longwood's tennis reputation has been well established. Way to go girls!

Take two . . .

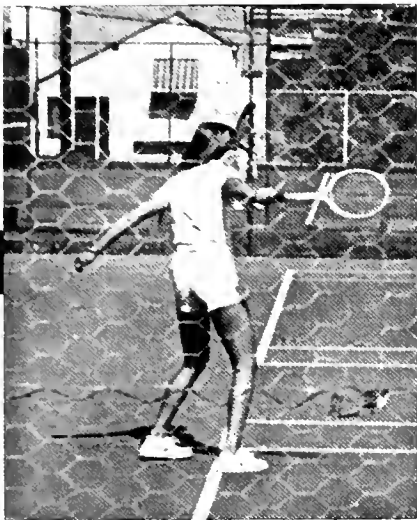

The dynamic duo!

1st Row: Margie Quarles, Teresa McLawhorn, Diane Lowman 2nd Row: Bennie Shaw, Gwen Koechlein, Dee Donnelly, Dianne Harwood, Mary Barrett, Jill Bachieri, Penny Stephens, coach—Miss Harriss

Dedicated to the Senior Class of 1976-77:
It seemed appropriate,
because many said they didn't care

It's not that we don't care,
or that we're lazy.
It's just that:
in one short second
out of a trillion
billion years of worlds,
we, WE will be adults.
We'll be in a world
bigger than a school.
a world SO HUGE."
How can we see this place
except as a hindrance?
This present anxiety,
anticipation,
indecision overwhelms.
Nobody stays in one place
anymore.
We've got somewhere
important to get to.
We won't be held back.
We will move on.
Next year—we find
a new home, a NEW LIFE.

Our Class song begins in the fall of '73
We walked into a new place—not sure what we would be.
All of a sudden we dozed off—3 years have passed us by.
We're seniors now—it's hit us—it's a kind of constant high.

Separately we came with totally different lives
But we will leave together—'cuz together you survive.
It's not the school, or classes, we will surely miss
It's times with our friends we will sit and reminisce.

During our stay at Longwood, tradition took a change
There was a time and place for it—to us it seemed so strange
As a part of our life, our thoughts, and our ideals
To make the past our present just didn't seem real.

The time dawns soon—It's graduation day
Soon we will turn our backs and slowly walk away.
To each and everyone of you—we'd like to leave behind
A true sense of being—one we couldn't find!

CHORUS:

Longwood, our ole Longwood—we all give thanks to thee
You've guided our ambitions—and we learned what not to be
There's no doubt in my mind—there was no other choice
I only wish I'd taken the time to let you hear my voice!!!
